Art Unit: 3731

This application contains claims 24-32 drawn to an invention nonelected with traverse in Paper No. 6. A complete reply to the final rejection must include cancelation of nonelected claims or other appropriate action (37 CFR 1.144) See MPEP § 821.01.

Claim 22 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Mazzocchi (WO 96/01591). Mazzocchi, in figures 11A and 11B, shows catheter (e.g., the balloon catheter described on page 29, lines 6-13), guide wire 260 and collapsible filter 270.

Claim 23 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mazzocchi (WO 96/01591). Mazzocchi, in figures 11A and 11B, shows tubular shaft 274, core wire 260 and collapsible filter 270. Mazzocchi fails to specifically indicate that tubular shaft 274 is flexible as claimed. However, Mazzocchi indicates that the shaft 274 may be formed of a thin walled hypotube (page 29, lines 28-31) which obviously is flexible since thin walled hypotubes are typically flexible due to the thinness of their walls.

Claim 23 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mazzocchi (WO 96/01591) in view of Gunther et al. (5,329,942). Assuming arguendo that tubular shaft 274 of Mazzocchi is not flexible, it is noted that the mechanism to expand and collapse the Mazzocchi filter is complicated and includes numerous tethers 290. Gunther et al. teach that a collapsible vascular filter may be expanded and collapsed by the simple relative slidable displacement between a core wire 15 and flexible shaft 19 (col. 5, lines 37-47). Including a similar core wire and flexible shaft with the Mazzocchi filter in order to provide a simpler mechanism to expand and collapse it would have been obvious.

Applicant's arguments filed Feb. 10, 2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The allegation that the Mazzocchi guidewire does not direct a balloon catheter is simply unfounded. Mazzocchi teaches that the balloon catheter can track the guidewire (page 39, line 30-32) which directs the balloon catheter to the desired location within the vasculature. The allegation that the Mazzocchi filter is not "for manual deployment" as defined in claim 22 is also simply unfounded. Mazzocchi teaches that the filter is manually pushed distally beyond the end of the introduction catheter to deploy it (page 39, line 25-30). As to claim 23, although the Gunther et al. filter is disclosed as being used as a vena cava filter, it is broadly a filter used in the patient's vasculature and is therefore similar to the Mazzocchi filter.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
